

Join the Global Queer Youth Network

www.gqyn.org

Established in 2020, the GQYN is a vibrant, inclusive community of passionate young leaders and organizations dedicated to advancing the rights and well-being of LGBTIQ+ youth worldwide.

Are you:

- A representative of a youth-led LGBTIQ+ organization?
- An advocate for LGBTIQ+ youth human rights?
- Engaged in empowering youth through human rights and civil society initiatives?
- Committed to embracing diversity, intersectionality, and inclusion?
- Eager to forge global partnerships and collaborate with civil society organizations?
- Driven by the goal of creating meaningful, sustainable impact?

If you answered "yes" to any of the above, we want to connect with you!

Why join GQYN?

- Collaboration: Work alongside other dynamic LGBTIQ+ youth organizations.
- Network Building: Create meaningful global networks in support of LGBTIQ+ youth organizations.
- Meaningful Participation: Establish pathways for meaningful and sustainable involvement of LGBTIQ+ human rights advocates in civil society.

As an international network, our mission is clear: to empower, amplify, and connect the voices of LGBTIQ+ youth and their allies on the global stage. We are champions of intersectionality, embracing diversity in all its forms. Our commitment extends beyond advocacy; we are change-makers, driving tangible impact through collaboration, awareness campaigns, and advocacy efforts

By joining the GQYN, your organization will become part of a dynamic network that nurtures your organization's growth, fosters connections with like-minded activists, and creates pathways for your meaningful participation in shaping a more inclusive, equitable world. Whether you're a youth-led LGBTIQ+ entity, a collaborative project of human rights defenders, or an organization passionate about youth-focused civil society activities, we invite you to be a part of our global movement for positive change. Together, we can make a difference.
